My Word!

WELL, IT'S OVER. The wedg, that is. Oh, there is still a of rice here and there in the use, but the birds pitched in d picked the yard and front ch clean.

The mother of the bride, I've covered, is a victim of last oute calamities. And from now I'm going to be terribly nice the mothers of brides I photoph.

Despite carefully planning evthing, I went to the wedding h chipped, unpolished nails d without the hat, which was dy and waiting.

The series of things which oved my undoing had to do h relatives but it wasn't their lt. As the list of out-of-town latives grew and grew, I was ply delighted but completely lected to take feeding them o consideration. Friday night, erved steak to 17 people; Satday night, ravioli to 10, and nday night, after the wedding, key to about the same number. between, there were lunches d snacks.

As we were getting dressed for wedding, the doorbell rang. didn't know the people and en't in any shape to greet m, so we sent the girls out to ertain them, wondering if they d come to the right house. They re, we discoverd, relatives of bridegroom who didn't want be late. Then a shaking Judi d her matron of honor came to ss. Then our volunteer phoographer Fern. It seemed no re than minutes until someody said the limousine, thoughtly provided by May and Har- Olson, had arrived. It was e to go.

From the minute the wedding s over, we were awash with rs of joy. Fern and others re snapping away and I was termined not to show up in liv- color with swollen eyelids d/or a red nose. So I giggled looked away, which must have peared ridiculous to my friends cry beautifully.

The 850 hors d'oeuvres might ver have been distributed with the assistance of Helen Baum, rley Jensen and the young s who attended. The cake ght never have been cut had Fern given me the camera taken over the knife.

ROTARY PRESIDENT James Turner (right) gives initial check for the beginning of the Rotary youth job placement program to Miss Caryn Nenneman, job coordinator, and Clark Armstrong, Rotary member of the Board. Rotary Program to Fight Current Drug Situation

After five months of investigation the Albany Rotary Club has designed a program that will hopefully curtail the current drug abuse problem prevailing in the area. As of June 14, 1971, the Rotary Club is sponsoring a community service program to find jobs for Albany's high school students.

Investigation results led Rotarians to believe the drug problem is partly caused by frustration and therefore alternate channels need to be opened. Summer, full or part-time, jobs, Rotarians believe, is a constructive channel. Through these jobs today's youth hopefully would not so readily turn to drugs.

To step in that direction the Rotary Community Service Committee has created a position for a local high school student to serve as secretary and coordinator of part-time and summer jobs for Albany high school students in cooperation with the present school employment office.

The program hopes to fill as many openings as possible. An office has been set up whereby students can leave their applications and employers can inquire if a student is available to meet his needs.

Albany businessmen are urged to find positions in their offices or stores. The offered jobs can be of any nature; babysitting, gardening, painting, house cleaning, etc. Any job ofer will be fully appreciated.

If you have an opening or if you are an Albany High student in need of a job, please contact Miss Caryn Nenneman, job coordinator, at 1181A Solano Avenue, 9 a.m. to 12 noon, Monday through Friday, or call her at 525-2261.

There is a student in Albany who can meet your needs. Please help the community by helping them.

OLD FASHIONED FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION

The spirit and flavor of Fourth of July's gone by can be found this Sunday as the Albany Parks and Recreation Department gets underway its annual "Old Fashioned Fourth of July Celebration" at Memorial Park, Portland and Ramona Avenues.

The celebration promises to be a fun-filled day for all. Starting the agenda right off the bat is Big League baseball at 9:30 followed by an interesting Arts and Crafts Exhibit at 10:00 and the old art of horseshoe pitching at 11:00.

The watermelon-eating contest, sponsored by the Albany Lions Club, begins the afternoon festivities at 12:00, and from 1:00 to 3:00 will be the cake decorating and demonstration show. Recreational swimming is offered from 1:00 to 4:00 and square dancing for veterans and those willing to give it a try will be held from 1:30 to 5:30 in the Albany High School auditorium. The family participation contests, including races, softball throw, egg catching, etc., is from 2:00 to 4:00 and beginning at 4:00 the Little League Sr. Division managers and the Jr. Division managers square off in a softball game.

The cake decorating event and the recreational swimming are both new on this year's program. Ladies who have taken lessons in the Albany and El Cerrito Parks and Recreation Departments will compete in the cake event. Both beginning and advanced cakes will be judged in the following categories: most original idea, best use of color, wedding cakes, all occasion cakes, children's birthday cakes, novelty cakes, patriotic cakes, and special occasion cakes. The arts and crafts exhibit will feature the works of youngsters participating in the Terrace Park crafts program.

Plan to attend this festive event and bring the family. It should be great!

Albany C of C Makes Demands to BART

The Albany Chamber of Commerce unanimously went on record recommending to BART Board of Directors that no extension of service outside of the three county area be made until all communities within these three counties receive complete rail and passenger service and until a BART link be made to the Oakland Metropolitan Airport.

The Albany Chamber of Commerce is the first chamber to go on record favoring support of the principal that the residents who are now paying for the system should be the first to fully utilize their risk and investment.

President Al Martinez said, "If good faith, confidence and support of BART is to be maintained, the Board of Directors of BART must unequivocally step forward, restate and redirect their policies and actions toward this end."

The Chamber believes Albany cannot stand pat and let its outlying neighbors suffer from lack of rapid transit service after having been promised that their needs and financial commitments would be respected.

C of C Presidential Award

Law States:

No Fireworks

Albany residents are reminded of Section 129 of the Albany Fire Code which reads, "It shall be unlawful for any person to sell or to cause or permit to be sold, or have possession of, or to discharge any fireworks of any kind or nature in the City except toy pistol caps containing not more than twenty-five hundredths grain of explosive compound to each paper cap."

Parents are asked to cooperate in not letting their children or themselves use any fireworks in the city of Albany. This Ordinance was enacted for the protection of life and property in our community and has been successful in keeping down accidents and fires from this source. Citizens are to be complimented on their past cooperation toward this effort. All fireworks will be confiscated and destroyed.

New Sunday Methodist Format

Beginning Sunday, July 4, Albany United Methodist Church will change its Sunday morning format to a family oriented approach. It will be possible for the whole family to come together and leave together. It will involve a 90-minute schedule starting at 10 a.m. and concluding at 11:30. During the period there will be something for all ages, sometimes together and at other times apart. There will be worship, music, and Christian education.

Odd Fellows Meet

Fountain Lodge No. 503, Independent Order of Odd Fellows will meet on Monday, July 5, at 8 p.m., in the Albany Masonic Temple, 533 San Pablo Avenue.

Noble Grand Hovey M. Hovagimian will preside over the meeting. Light refreshments will be served after the business session.

CHRIST LUTHERAN CHURCH

Worship services at Christ Lutheran Church, 780 Ashbury Ave., El Cerrito, will be held at 8:30 and 11 a.m. conducted by Pastor R. W. Hoffman.

A farewell barbecue will be held for Pastor and Mrs. R. W. Hoffman and family immediately following the 11 o'clock service.

Sunday school and adult classes are at 9:45 a.m.

Calm Night for Council

Albany City Council touched on a variety of subjects at the Monday night session, one of which was the authorization by Council of the fiscal year-end fund transfers as reported by City Administrator James Turner.

Albany resident, Mrs. Robert V. Hughes, drew the Council's attention to the fact that the Albany High gymnasium was closed this summer. It was unanimously felt that the gym should remain open during summer months, thus offering recreation for the youth. On a 4 to 0 vote (Councilman Lewis Howell was absent) Council decided to look into the matter.

On the request of Mrs. H. A. Hanson of Albany, Council voted unanimously to confer with the Parks and Recreation Department to see if shrubs can be planted along the Carmel Avenue side of Memorial Park and if a strip of park land along the street can be watered more frequently.

In other action Pacific Telephone and Telegraph submitted a claim for damages to the city in the amount of $2,000.00. Several cable boxes belonging to Pacific Tel. and Tel. were struck by heavy construction equipment owned by Ransome Co. Council voted unanimously to refer the claim to the city insurance adjustor and city attorney.

On the recommendation of Councilman Joseph Carlevaro a resolution will be drawn stating that no city hall offices are to be closed during the lunch hour.

Council referred to the budget sessions the bid rendered by Leonard C. Brusseau, Universal Building Maintenance Co. (janitorial services), for service to city buildings.

The payment of claims in the amount of $15,848.98 was approved on a 4 to 0 vote.

Charles A. Moore Dies Suddenly

Charles A. Moore

Charles Alexander Moore, 73, a native of Madera, Ga., died suddenly Tuesday, June 22, at his Berkeley home. He was a graduate of the University of California and did post graduate work at Stanford. He also taught at Washington State and Modoc County, Ga., before coming to Albany in 1931, where he became principal of the high school and remained in that capacity until his retirement in 1961.

Outstanding as an administrator and educator and known for his personal interest in his students and their subsequent careers, he enjoyed many hobbies, particularly fishing and summers spent with his family at Echo Lake.

He is survived by his wife, Anne Helen Moore; a daughter, Hallie E. Moore, M.D., of Hartford, Conn.; a son, Walter Charles Moore of Vienna, Austria; a sister, Estella Beatty of Chico, Ga.; and another sister, Marie Moore Taylor, who pre-deceased him.

He was a member of Alpha Kappa Lambda, University of California, the Albany Rotary Club, Berkeley Sirs and the California Retired Teachers Association.

Funeral services were held Friday, June 25, at Ellis-Olson Mortuary in Albany.

The family would prefer that memorial contributions be made to the Charles A. Moore Academic Scholarship Fund, Albany High School, or the Children's Hospital Medical Center of the East Bay.

SUNDAY JULY 4th

SUNDAY JULY 4th

Senior Citizens

846 Masonic Ave.

By Kay (Sis) Haesloop

Today is our farewell to June. Now we are looking forward to our month of July. First we have Independence Day, the 4th of July—DON'T FORGET TO FLY YOUR FLAG. A few of the hi-lites through the month: Hawaii annexed in 1936; postal service began in 1775; and our First World War in 1914.

Now this Saturday, Sunday, and Monday we will be closed, but on Sunday, the 4th of July, we are all invited to the Veterans Memorial Park at 1325 Portland Avenue.

Our "Get Together" will be tomorrow 10:30, then Friday your Community Center. Our Craft Class will re-open, after our three days off, on Tuesday at 10:00 and our World Affairs will be 3:30 Wednesday.

And don't forget our trip to Marine World, Monday the 12th.

Do you remember the saying, "The baby needs new shoes?" Well, our little ones need more clothes. We have many dolls ready for dresses. Let's see what we can do!

What a surprise we had last Thursday just after a meeting. "Who dropped in?"—Mayor Hubert (Red) Call and Councilman Joe Carlevaro.

We have another surprise, of course it won't be until August, but if you are interested in attending the Ice Follies, Aug. 11, or a visit to Angel Island Aug. 23, either call Beulah or "Do Drop In" and ask her about it.

My Word...

By noon Monday, the house was back in order. Then our nephew, the one we always called Baby Hal, had to be taken to Travis Air Force Base and a plane to Vietnam. His bride, Vickie, came back with tears of unhappiness streaming down her pretty face.

By noon Tuesday, everyone was gone. I slept 12 hours straight that night.

YOU MAY NOT wish to continue, but do remain for the rest of the week. I kept looking at the calendar wondering how to survive it.

On Wednesday night, we dressed formally and attended a Children's Hospital party at the Glenn Cramer home in Orinda. They live in a fairyland castle and I was simply awe-struck over the lovely home and the beautiful people who attended. Even Robin Orr of the Tribune gave it enthusiastic coverage. Following sit-down dinner for 200 (which made my little event of the previous Sunday seem like crackers and milk in the kitchen), we rushed to the car to catch the end of the Soroptimist installation for Bette Rhodes. When we arrived at Mira Vista Country Club, there was a lone pickup in the lot.

On Friday, we had another double evening. There was a party for Children's Hospital employees at Hiller Highlands above the Claremont followed by installation for East Bay Women's Press Club and dinner in Alamo. (As outgoing president, you have to attend to make sure somebody gets railroaded into the job!)

Saturday, we spent most of the day photographing the wedding of Lorrie McClain of El Cerrito and Wally Ferrelly at Alameda Naval Air Station. When we arrived, we learned one of the bridesmaids had come down with measles. As we were ready to leave home, Mother of the Bride Betty broke her shoe. Our husbands finally mended it as we mothers decided that the best laid plans of mothers of the bride can be shot down in minutes by things completely beyond your control!

SORRY TO HEAR that Rev. and Mrs. Marshall P. Luckey are leaving our First Baptist Church. He is going to a new ministry in Benicia and they will be greatly missed by their many friends here. Church members hosted a farewell reception Sunday.

ALBANY HOSPITAL is inaugurating an Acute Alcoholic Detoxification service, including counseling services, Dr. Victor Stallone announced after returning from the University of Utah, where he took a course in treatment of the alcoholic. Alcoholism will be treated as the disease it is, he said.

NOW THAT some of the beautification of Solano is completed, it's easier to understand why they had to do so much digging up of the streets. It takes a little more shape every day.

A LITTLE LEAGUE representative has answered the item in last week's column suggesting a list of upcoming games in this paper. She said they are scheduling 26 games a week and she's pretty sure there isn't space to run them.
